Step 9

"Made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others."

"The readiness to take the full consequences of our past acts, and to take responsibility for the well-being of others at the same time, is the very spirit of Step Nine." (Twelve and Twelve p. 87)

Tradition 9

"A.A. as such, ought never be organized; but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve."

"AA has to function, but at the same time it must avoid those dangers of great wealth, prestige, and entrenched power which necessarily tempt other societies." (Twelve and Twelve p. 175)

Step 10

"Continued to take personal inventory and when we were wrong promptly admitted it."

"A continuous look at our assets and liabilities, and a real desire to learn and grow by this means, are necessities for us." (Twelve and Twelve p. 88)

Tradition 10

"Alcoholics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues; hence the A.A. name ought never be drawn into public controversy."

"All history affords us the spectacle of striving nations and groups finally torn asunder because they were designed for, or tempted into, controversy." "Since recovery from alcoholism is life itself to us, it is imperative that we preserve in full strength our means of survival." (Twelve and Twelve pp. 176, 177)

Identifying Fear

The chief activator of our defects has been self-centered fear...

12 Steps and 12 Traditions p 76

When I feel uncomfortable, irritated, or depressed, I look for fear. This "evil and corroding thread" is the root of my distress: Fear of failure; fear of others' opinions; fear of harm, and many other fears. I have found a High Power Who does not want me to live in fear and, as a result, the experience of A.A. in my life is freedom and joy. I am no longer willing to live with the multitude of character defects that characterized my life when I was drinking. Step Seven is my vehicle to freedom from these defects. I pray for help in identifying the fear underneath the defect, and then I ask God to relieve me of that fear. This method works for me without fail and is one of the great miracles of my life in Alcoholics Daily Reflections p 196, July 6

HELP WANTED!!!

Looking for a service commitment? Want to give back to fellow A.A.'s? Want to enhance your Program? Here are some opportunities.

"I am responsible. When anyone, anywhere reaches out for help, I want the hand of AA always to be there. And for that I am responsible."

VOLUNTEER!!!

Why Volunteer?

"Life will take on new meaning. To watch people recover, to see them help others, to watch loneliness vanish, to see a fellowship grow up about you, to have a host of friends-this is an experience you must not miss. We know you will not want to miss it. Frequent contact with newcomers is the bright spot of our lives." Big Book p.89
